

Membership Application – Organizations

Membership in the Western Virginia CoC is open to any organization connected to the CoC’s service area that is interested and committed to making homelessness rare, brief, and non-recurring in the Shenandoah Valley. CoC membership offer many benefits, including but not limited to:

- ✚ Joining a robust network of agencies working together to end homelessness
- ✚ Helping coordinate and implement housing and service systems within our region
- ✚ Developing measures and interventions that advocate for eradicating homelessness in Western Virginia
- ✚ Defining the CoC’s leadership and governance by voting in periodic elections

Each organization will be represented by a primary representative who will have this voting right. In their absence, an alternate representative can vote on the behalf of the organization.
